Helping Arianna find her path

"We were really worried."

Arianna and her mother shared their journey of before and after they found Pine Tree Society.

"She spoke her first word at four and a half," Arianna's mother recalled.

Arianna has worked with Linda Bonnar, Director of Communication Pathways, receives children's case management services, and has been attending Pine Tree Camp since she was 8 years old.

Arianna says Pine Tree Society has helped her "dream for a life."

"I don't know what we would do without Pine Tree Camp."

"I don't worry about him. I know he's in good hands."

Local news station WABI5 visited Pine Tree Camp during the last children's session of the summer and spoke with President & CEO Noel Sullivan, as well as camper Casey and his mother Teena.

"He is packed about four days before we go." Teena laughed.

Pine Tree Camp staff, parents, and especially campers already can't wait for next year!
