2018 holiday cards are in

Did you know Pine Tree Society offers holiday cards?

For over 50 years, the cards have featured quintessential Maine art showcasing the beauty of winter.

This year, our cards will display art from Richard Hasenfus of Georgetown and Marieluise Hutchinson of Cushing. Hasenfus's "Winter Lighthouse" and Hutchinson's "The Perfect Snowman" were painted for Pine Tree Society's 2018 holiday card series.

All proceeds from card sales go to support the programs of Pine Tree Society.

Join us for the Bath Art Walk

On view will be over 60 paintings representing “A Maine Retrospective: The Art of Pine Tree Society’s Holiday Cards.” This extensive collection dates back to the early 1960s, covering a span of more than 50 years.

The art featured in this show has raised more that $3 million dollars to support and transform the lives of Maine people with disabilities. One hundred percent of proceeds from annual holiday card sales support Pine Tree Society’s programs.
