Meet Pine Tree Camper Bradley

“It was beautiful week,” said Bradley’s mother, Amy. “We’ve been going for many years with other families in Cabin 6. It’s like a family reunion. Great friendships have been made and we get together at other times over the year. All the kids love it because they have friends from camp who they want to meet up with. It makes it really nice.”

The families have been going for so long and have such a good time together that when the cabin counselor came in to introduce herself, Amy asked, “Did you get warned about us? You might want to ask around!”

Amy really appreciates the good nature of the counselors and that they have fun while working hard. “So much of what goes on at camp depends on the counselors,” she continued. “They take on a lot of responsibility and work so hard and do such a good job to be sure campers are doing everything they want to do.”

Bradley knows a lot of the staff and other campers and he particularly enjoys the social opportunities camp provides. It’s his week to enjoy the company and camaraderie of people he knows well. He also loves boating, fishing and relaxing in the tree house.

While Bradley is busy doing activities, Amy gets to relax as well. It’s an important week for her to have some respite from being Bradley’s primary caregiver.

“The benefits are immeasurable.”
